Great Hospitals

In 2016, WORLD NEUROSURGERY is re-introducing the topic of ‘Great Hospitals.’ We are seeking articles from institutions world-wide who have a rich history and a message to share. Such prior publications have provided an insight into their unique characteristics, attributes and strategies/modus operandi. If any of you have a message to share regarding your institution, please template a submission article after those already published in World Neurosurgery1-5 and submit such for review as a “Great Hospitals” article type.

References: